RCOG Core Curriculum – Module 15 – Sexual and Reproductive Health

This module's reading list contains several BASHH guidelines listed below however they can be long and hard to read, with a lot of information which may not be directly relevant to the MRCOG Part 2. If revision time is short, we recommend using an up-to-date book which summarises the key points:

- Sexual and Reproductive Health at a Glance – C. Melville (2015)
 - A very useful, inexpensive and easy to read summary of sexual and reproductive health, including contraception. This book contains all the required knowledge in a much more accessible format and style.

RCOG Guidelines

- Best practice in postpartum family planning – RCOG Best Practice Paper No. 1 – June 2015
- Best practice in comprehensive abortion care – RCOG Best Practice Paper No. 2 – June 2015
- Clinical Guidelines for Early Medical Abortion at Home – January 2019

NICE Guidelines

- Contraceptive services with a focus on young people up to the age of 25 – NICE PH51 – March 2014
